

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS
of the
"Sunshine Club."
Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

Amended " 50
November 15, 1950.

* * * *

PREAMBLE

In order to effect a social and benefit organization of employees of the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation") in Washington, D. C., the following constitution and by-laws are adopted.

NAME

The name of this organization shall be "FCIC Sunshine Club."

OBJECT

It shall be the object of this club to establish and maintain a system of handling a fund composed of dues of the members and profits, if any, from various other sources participated in by the personnel of the Corporation for the purpose of presenting gifts or remembrances and promoting such social and recreational activities as may be approved by the Manager of the Corporation. As an additional service to members of the Sunshine Club, the club shall be a member of, and obtain for its members any or all benefits of, the Agricultural Employees Recreation Association.

ORGANIZATION

The officers shall consist of a chairman, a vice-chairman and treasurer. The officers shall be elected from a slate consisting of at least two candidates for each office which will be selected by incumbent officers. An annual election shall be held each year on the last Friday in September. New officers will take office on the following Monday and will serve for a period of one year. The chairman will call meetings of the officer as necessary and assist the vice-chairman or treasurer as the need arises. The vice-chairman will purchase appropriate remembrances in the case of illness, weddings, births or deaths in the families of any of the employees. The Treasurer will collect all monies and keep an accurate account of receipts and disbursements. An annual audit of all records maintained shall be performed concurrently with the election and assumption of duties of new officers. Since each club is entitled to representation on the AERA Council, the officers shall appoint annually two members to represent them at each AERA Council meeting.

MEMBERSHIP

The members of this club shall consist of active employees of the Corporation located in or attached to the Washington, D. C. office.

BENEFITS

All members of this club paying regular dues shall be considered as active members, and as such shall be entitled to all benefits of the club. Those employees who do not wish to be active members of the club shall be considered as inactive members and shall be entitled to participate only in those social functions which are conducted by the club.

MEETINGS

Meetings of the officers shall be called whenever deemed advisable by the chairman.

DUES

Dues shall be payable on the first pay day in April, July, October, and January. The dues for each member shall be $3.00 per annum or $.75 per quarter period and shall be paid to the treasurer. Any special funds received from other sources shall be accepted by the treasurer and deposited into the regular fund.

EXPENDITURES

Expenditures may include the following items:

Card for illness at home of 3 to 7 calendar days (Investigation should be made to determine return to duty date.)	$ .25
Hospitalization or illness in excess of 7 days (Investigation should be made to determine return to duty date.)	3.00
Deaths in immediate family (spouse, children, including step-children and adopted, brother, sister, mother, and father)	10.00
Card for deaths of other relatives	.25
Births	Not to exceed 5.00
Marriages	10.00
Fortieth and Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary	10.00
Retirement (any kind)	10.00

AERA annual membership dues as required and approved by officers

Any recommendations for expenditures for purposes other than those specifically set forth above shall be submitted to the officers. The officers shall have discretionary powers with respect to such recommendations.

AMENDMENTS

The provisions set forth herein may be amended by additions or by deletions upon the unanimous consent of the officers, and such amendments shall be made known to all members of the club.

